

PRESS RELEASE – LAWYER’S WEEKLY & PROCTOR

NEW STAFF APPOINTMENTS

Brisbane Family Law Centre (BFLC) at Albion has noted an increase in the number of clients seeking to handle their family law matters through the collaborative method. As a result, BFLC has found it necessary to increase the number of solicitors practising at the firm.

BFLC are excited to announce that Leith Sinclair and Shannon Daykin have recently joined the Albion team.

Leith is an experienced family law solicitor. After graduating with a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) and a Graduate Diplomacy in Legal Practice in 2005, Leith joined Hemming and Hart Lawyers, eventually assuming the role of Senior Associate and head of the family law team with that firm. She completed her Master of Laws in her first year as a lawyer. She most recently worked in family law at Berck & Associates.

Having worked in all facets of family law, Leith is keen to embrace the collaborative law method and looks forward to offering BFLC clients the benefit of her extensive experience.

Shannon Daykin joins BFLC from Emerson Family Law and is looking to deepening her practice in an area she feels very passionately about - family law.

Shannon is also an experienced commercial lawyer having previously worked with McCullough Robertson Lawyers and Praeger Batt Solicitors in Brisbane since graduating from the Queensland University of Technology with a Bachelor of Laws in 2003.
