

Work Experience Application Form

Thank you for your recent application to undertake work experience with our Practice. We receive many applications for work experience, and as such, we require candidates to complete this application form.

The aim of this form is to help us understand your circumstances and aspirations for the future, so that we can determine whether a work experience program in our Practice would be mutually beneficial.

We will consider this application form, along with any other information that you have provided, when deciding if work experience will be offered. Please email your application form to alex@bflc.com.au. We thank you for your application & will be in touch shortly should your application be successful.
